

BERRIMA: INFORMATION FOR RIDERS

NO DOGS!! Dogs are not allowed at the event, at the request of the property owners. Please leave your dog(s) at home. The owner of any dog found off a leash will be asked to donate $100 to the Guy Wallace Fund.

This competition is run on private property, and all competitors and spectators are urged to make every effort to leave the grounds tidy and without rubbish ... this particularly applies to elastic tape from bandaging and rubbish taken out on the course ... do the right thing!!!

Parking space is very limited at "Araluen" so please park with consideration and obey the directions of any marshalls. Please do not erect portable yards. Cars must not be parked in Kardinia Lane.

Breakfast, Bar-B-Q lunches and refreshments will be available on Saturday and Sunday provided by Bowral Lions Club. The Magnificup Coffee van will also be in attendance.

All competitors must be up to date with AMBULANCE subscriptions or belong to a HEALTH FUND. It is the responsibility of each competitor to wear an EFA approved Safety Helmet, that complies with the current EFA helmet standards, at all times while mounted. It is the responsibility of each rider to ensure that their helmet complies with the rules.

Competitors with long hair are requested to arrange their hair so that it does not obscure their Bib number. If the number is not clearly visible, a competitor may be eliminated. The Rules for Eventing state clearly that all competitors eliminated from the competition must retire from the course at a walk. Riders are reminded that under new EFA rules, riders are eliminated after a fence related fall of horse or rider.

All riders will be required to wear back number holders, and will be issued with two A4 size sheets with their numbers to insert into the holders. Holders will be on sale from the Ulladulla Saddlery. There are no rentals, deposits or refunds. All riders must wear Medical Armbands in the Cross Country phase. Armbands will be on sale from the Ulladulla Saddlery.

Protests must be made in writing on the proper form to the Secretary accompanied by a sum of $50 not later than 30 minutes after the incident involved, or, where marks are concerned, within 30 minutes of the issue of the marks. Forms are available from the Secretary's desk.
